INSIDE THE SERIES

Overall: Fifth Meeting (Georgia State leads, 3-1 • 0-2 Home; 1-1 Away)

Current Streak: GSU, Won 3

Last Meeting: Nov. 4, 2017 (L, 17-21) - Allen E. Paulson Stadium | Statesboro, Ga.

Facts Maybe Only We Find Interesting: Despite their proximity, Georgia Southern and Georgia State have met just four times before with Georgia State leading the series 3-1 . . . The Eagles won the first game in the series 69-31 in 2014 in Atlanta, but the Panthers have taken the past three games, winning 34-7 in 2015 in Statesboro, 30-24 in 2016 in Atlanta and 21-17 last season in Statesboro . . . The head coaches on Saturday certainly know each other well as Georgia State head coach Shawn Elliott served 13 seasons as an assistant coach at Appalachian State from 1997-2009 . . . His final nine seasons, he served as the offensive line coach and hired a young tight ends coach in 2001 named Chad Lunsford . . . Lunsford spent two seasons on the staff at App State before beginning his first stint at Georgia Southern and the two remain friends to the day . . . The winner of this game earns two points for its department in the annual Southern-State Rivalry Series, which currently is led by Georgia State, 4.0-2.0.

COUNTDOWN TO KICKOFF

- 10 Wesley Fields needs 145 rushing yards to move into 10th place at GS for rushing yards in a season by a senior.

- 8 Eight players have started all 11 games for the Eagles this season (four on offense, four on defense).

- 6 This will be Georgia Southern's sixth game played all-time in the Atlanta Metro area during the modern era.

- 4 Kindle Vidor's four interceptions are tied for the Sun Belt Conference lead.
- 3 Georgia State has won the past three games in the series after the Eagles won the first game in 2014.

HEAD COACH CHAD LUNSFORD

• The 2018 campaign marks the 10th season overall, and sixth in his current stint at Georgia Southern for head coach Chad Lunsford. Lunsford was promoted from assistant head coach to interim head coach on Oct. 22, 2017. He was named the 10th full-time head coach in the modern era on Nov. 27, 2017.

• After working with the wide receivers in 2013, Lunsford worked two seasons with the tight ends and served as recruiting coordinator in 2014 and 2015. In 2017, Lunsford coached the Eagle slot receivers and H-backs and again served in the role of special teams coordinator, a title he added in 2016. He was also named the program's assistant head coach in 2017.

• In 2016, Lunsford was named a Broyles Award nominee, given to the nation's top assistant coach, as the Eagles blocked seven kicks and featured a Lou Groza Award finalist in Younghoe Koo, who went on to play with the Los Angeles Chargers.

• On the recruiting side, Lunsford helped engineer signing classes which featured 22 players and ranked in the top half of the Sun Belt in 2015, also ranked near the top of the Sun Belt in 2014 and in 2016. He was named the Sun Belt's Best Recruiter in 2016 by Scout. His 2018 class was rated the top in the Sun Belt by 247Sports.

• Lunsford returned to Statesboro as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator in June 2013 after four years in an administrative position with the Auburn football program. He served in consecutive roles as the Tigers' Director of Scouting and Director of Player Personnel, assisting with the day-to-day operations of Auburn football, with an emphasis on recruiting, organizing and prospect evaluation.

• Lunsford coached the slotbacks in his previous three seasons (2003-05) on the Georgia Southern staff, including the Eagles' eventual all-time receptions leader Raja Andrews, who finished his career with 127 catches and as the record holder for receiving yards in a single season with 873.

• After departing Georgia Southern in 2006, Lunsford spent a year at Griffin High School as a special education teacher and served as the outside linebackers coach.

• Two years back at Georgia Military College followed his time at Griffin with Lunsford taking a familiar place as linebackers coach and adding responsibilities as special teams coordinator.

• He played at Elbert County High for legendary coach T. McFerrin. During his high school career, Elbert County made four straight appearances in the state playoffs and posted a 20-3 record in his junior and senior years.

• Lunsford graduated from Georgia College in May 2000 with a degree in biology and minor in mathematics, and earned a master's of sport science degree from the United States Sports Academy in 2002.

• He and his wife, Tippy, have a son, Rhett, and two daughters, Sophie and Josie.

• Lunsford and his family pledged to donate $200,000 over the next four years in honor of his coaching staff to the Coaches Continuity Fund through the Georgia Southern Athletic Foundation in April of 2018.

WE ARE GEORGIA SOUTHERN

With no disrespect to our colleagues in Atlanta, we are Georgia Southern, not Georgia State. We don't ask for much; heck we think we're pretty easy to deal with. All we really ask is for media covering the Eagles to get our name right. You can call us Georgia Southern, GS or the Eagles, just please don't call us Georgia State!
 - Sincerely, Eagle Nation

BOWL POSSIBILITIES

• The Sun Belt has contractual ties with five postseason bowl games. Six SBC teams are bowl eligible (Appalachian State, Arkansas State, Georgia Southern, Louisiana, Troy and ULM). Coastal Carolina (at South Alabama) would also become bowl eligible with one more win.

• If there are more eligible teams from the conference than slots, being bowl eligible does not guarantee a postseason bid. There are 39 bowls, meaning 78 slots nationally. If there are not 78 bowl eligible teams (there are 70 this week), an SBC could fill an open spot, but if all slots are filled, some team(s) will get left out. Purchase tickets through GS to make us a strong candidate for a bowl! GSEagles.com/Bowl

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

• Of the 15 seniors on the 2018 roster, two Eagles are playing the season as college graduates. They are, in alphabetical order: LaBaron Anthony and Ellis Richardson. Additionally, Zack Copeland and RJ Murray, who had their careers cut short by injury and are serving as student assistants, have also graduated.

• Five more seniors - Ian Bush, Wesley Fields, Monteo Garrett, Drake Grall and Joshua Moon - are scheduled to graduate in December and seniors Jay Bowdry, Kado Brown, Deshon Cooper and Jeremiah Culbreth are on track to graduate in May 2019. Sean Freeman, Logan Hunt and Alex Smith are on track to graduate in summer of 2019.

• In addition, junior Lane Ecton has already graduated, juniors Jake Edwards and Colby Ransom are scheduled to graduate in December and juniors Tyler Bass, Jakob Cooper and sophomore Will Browning III are slated to graduate in May 2019.

• Junior Obe Fortune is on track to graduate in the summer of 2019.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

• When redshirt freshman Shai Werts started at quarterback at Auburn last year, he made history as just the third Georgia Southern freshman (true or redshirt) quarterback to start the opening game of the season.

• Werts enjoyed quite the rookie campaign, starting 11 of the Eagles' 12 games. He caught fire late, earning Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Week after leading the Eagles to a 52-0 win over South Alabama.

• The Clinton, South Carolina, native finished his freshman year with 929 passing yards, a new school record for freshman quarterbacks. Hall of Famer Tracy Ham previously held the school record for freshman passing yards with 886 in 1983.

• Werts finished with 1,486 yards of total offense (929 pass, 722 rush), setting a new freshman record for total offense in a season by a quarterback with 1,651 yards. Kevin Ellison previously held the record with 1,642 yards (886 run, 756 pass) set in 2013.

• He had four 100-yard rushing games last year, the first time a GS freshman has had at least that many since Jermaine Austin had seven in 2002. He now has seven 100-yard rushing games for his career.

• Against Coastal Carolina in last year's finale, Werts became the first FBS player to lead his team in passing (57), rushing (108) and receiving (30) yards in a game since Keenan Reynolds of Navy accomplished the feat against Pitt in 2015.

• So far this season, he has rushed for 754 yards and 12 scores (he had three in 11 games last year) while throwing for 849 yards and eight scores. For his career, he's rushed for 1,476 yards and 15 touchdowns while throwing for 1,778 yards and 15 scores.

HAVE A FIELD(S) DAY

• Senior running back Wesley Fields has shared the carries with former Eagle Matt Breida, who is with the San Francisco 49ers, and L.A. Ramsby during his time here, but it's his backfield now.

• A threat to go the distance, on the goal line and in the passing game, Fields had a standout freshman campaign for the Eagles. The Americus, Georgia, native rushed for 682 yards and seven touchdowns on 101 attempts, averaging 6.8 yards per carry. He also had four receptions for 105 yards and one touchdown, including a 60-yard scoring reception against New Mexico State.

• Last season, he led the Eagles with 811 rushing yards and scored five times.

• He has 2,720 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns for his career to go along with 34 catches for 585 yards and six scores. He became the 18th player in school history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark for their career against South Carolina State in the opener.

italics indicates true freshman

• Fields has also stepped it up in the classroom, earning a perfect 4.0 GPA last spring to earn a spot on the President's List and will graduate in December.

HOME-GROWN TALENT

• Of the 111 players on the Eagles' roster, 76 players are from the state of Georgia (68.5 percent).

THE DYNAMIC WK3

• Sophomore slot receiver Wesley Kennedy III has proven to be a dynamic threat in several areas of the game. The Savannah native has 356 yards rushing and three scores, 176 yards receiving, 81 yards on punt returns and 422 yards on kickoff returns for a total of 1,035 all-purpose yards. He is averaging 94.1 all-purpose yards per game.

• With the game against Arkansas State tied at 21-all with less than 30 seconds left, Kennedy III took the reverse 47 yards for a touchdown to give the Eagles a big 28-21 win over the Red Wolves as he finished with 105 rushing yards, his first 100-yard game.

YOUNG TALENT

• Of the 111 players on the Eagles' roster, 49 are freshmen, either true or redshirt (44.1 percent). Unofficially, only Minnesota (53.1 percent), Virginia (50.0 percent), Wake Forest (49.1 percent), UCF (48.0 percent), Penn State (47.5 percent) and Iowa (45.9 percent) have higher percentages of freshmen making up their roster in the FBS.

• Another 30 are listed as sophomores, meaning 71.2 percent of Georgia Southern's roster is made up of sophomores or younger.

KICKIN' BASS

• Junior Tyler Bass had quite the season in 2017 as he took over for Lou Groza Award Finalist Younghoe Koo. He made the Sun Belt's second-team after hitting 15 of 19 field goals on the season, with nine of them being 40 yards or longer. He kicked a season-long 48-yard field goal against Georgia State and had a 61-yard punt against South Alabama. Handling the kickoffs, he had 46 touchbacks on 54 kickoffs and he only missed one PAT on the season.

• His nine field goals of 40-yards or longer were the second-most in a season behind only Tim Foley's 10 in 1985. He will now set his sights on moving up the school's all-time list for field goals of 40 yards or longer:

22 David Cool (1988-91)

19 Tim Foley (1984-87)

16..... Tyler Bass (2016-)

14 Adrian Mora (2008-11)

12 Reed Haley (1992-94)

9 Scott Shelton (2001-02)

• This year, the Irmo, South Carolina, native has been named one of 20 semifinalists for the Groza Award and is 14-for-16 on field goals with a long of 50 and seven longer than 40 yards, is 40-for-40 on PATs and also has six tackles on kickoff coverage, as well.

was a first-team all-region and all-county selection at quarterback, he enrolled at prep school in Virginia.

- He then transferred to Los Angeles Valley College in the fall of 2014 as a true freshman and then transferred to Alabama State in the spring of 2015. Richardson played in nine games in 2015 at Alabama State, throwing for 739 yards and six touchdowns while rushing for 550 yards and eight scores.

- After transferring to Georgia Southern in January 2016, he had to sit out per NCAA transfer rules and used it as a redshirt season. In the spring, he was moved to tight end and has thrived at the new position and has already graduated with a degree in interdisciplinary studies.

OFF THE TOP ROPE

- Defensive line coach Victor Cabral, who was a standout defensive lineman for the Eagles from 2000-2004, took a unique approach to fundraising this past offseason. Wanting to help Athletes in Action raise money for their annual Spring Break Mission Trip, Cabral trained with American Premier Wrestling - a professional wrestling organization - before taking to the squared circle on Aug. 29 as part of Summer Steam held on campus.

- Cabral teamed with "Big Country" Clay Teston to take on the Roman Empire and after getting slammed through a table at his signing ceremony, Cabral came back to exact revenge a week later, picking up the win all while raising money for a good cause.

THE WRIGHT STUFF

- True freshman C.J. Wright was signed as a nose tackle, but the Sylvania native has proven to be quite versatile early on in his career. Wright, who's listed at 6-0, 290, has seen action on offense, defense and special teams this season.

- Thus far, he has played 144 snaps on defense, 95 on special teams and seven on offense. He's carried the ball five times for 20 yards with a long of 9 yards.

TOMARCIO THE TACKLER

- Senior linebacker Tomarcio Reese has made quite an impact in his short time in Statesboro after transferring in from Northwest Mississippi CC.

- He started all 12 games last year, recording 45 tackles, including 4.0 for loss and 2.5 sacks, to go along with two pass break ups and a fumble recovery. In his first game, he returned a fumble 22 yards for a touchdown at No. 12 Auburn.

- This year, he has picked up his production and has 52 tackles through 11 games. In the opener, he recorded 10 tackles and an interception against South Carolina State, earning Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week honors. He missed the Arkansas State game with an injury.

- Reese graduated from Colquitt County High and went to Eastern Arizona College for a year before then heading to Northwest Mississippi. The Moultrie native is majoring in interdisciplinary studies.

THE GATA CHAIN

- GS has a unique way of rewarding the player responsible for a turnover in the handing out of the GATA Chain. Designed, cut and welded by former Eagle football player T.J. Rutledge (2002-05), the chain - which is a symbol of the Eagles' blue collar work ethic - is made of stainless steel and weighs seven pounds.

- So far this season, GS has forced 25 turnovers (14 interceptions, 12 fumble recoveries) for a +21 turnover margin which is tops in the FBS.

NO-FLY ZONE

- Georgia Southern boasts one of the top cornerback duos in the country in Monquavion Brinson and Kindle Vildor. Both juniors, they have combined for 10 career interceptions and have stepped up their game this year in teaming up to slow down some of the best pass offenses around.

- This season, Brinson is tied for the team lead with 62 tackles and has an interception and 10 pass break-ups while Vildor has 38 tackles, including 3.5 for loss, and four interceptions to go along with nine pass break-ups.

- The duo combined to break up six passes (four for Brinson, two for Vildor) against the high-flying Arkansas State passing attack.

RUSHING = OUTCOME?

Since joining the FBS in 2014, in 60 total games, GS is ...

HONORING EDWIN

• Head coach Chad Lunsford announced in February that the walk-on tryouts for the GS program moving forward will be named in honor of Edwin Jackson, who died Feb. 4, 2018 in an automobile accident in Indianapolis.

• Jackson went through the tryout process at Georgia Southern to earn a spot on the team and worked his way up to eventual starter before moving on to start in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts.

• As a junior in 2013, Jackson totaled a team-best 92 tackles, including a team-leading 13 stops in a 26-20 upset win against Florida in The Swamp. He was voted team captain by his teammates and recorded a career-high 100 tackles as a senior in helping the Eagles win the Sun Belt Conference Championship in the school's inaugural year competing at the FBS level in 2014. He was awarded first-team All-Sun Belt honors for his performance on the field.

• He was an undrafted free agent who went to the Arizona Cardinals' camp, but was one of the final cuts. He joined the Indianapolis Colts' practice squad in late 2015 and went on to start eight games at linebacker in 2016 for the Colts. He did not play in 2017 season due to an injury.

• Jackson created the Edwin Jackson 53 Foundation, which holds football clinics, fitness camps and after-school programs for disadvantaged youth, and supports student athletes who do not have scholarships.

• The Eagles are wearing a "EJ40" sticker on their helmets this season — Jackson wore No. 40 at GS — to honor his legacy with proceeds from hat sales with the same logo going toward his foundation.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN FOOTBALL TRADITIONS

• Georgia Southern has a rich tradition in the college football world, winning six Division I-AA national titles, but also has traditions that make the program unique.

Yellow School Buses

• When the football program was resurrected in 1981, the team needed a way to travel to practices and games. Operating on a shoestring budget didn't allow for transportation back then, let alone any luxurious travel. The Bulloch County Board of Education stepped in with a deal the University couldn't refuse: GS would only pay $1 each for two yellow school buses. The football team still uses the buses to this day, taking them to practices and using them on game day, as well.

Beautiful Eagle Creek

• When Georgia Southern resurrected the football program in 1981, traditions and spirit needed resurrection as well. So legendary head football coach Erk Russell created his own. Inspired by the gnat-infested drainage ditch that cut across the field between what was then the team's locker room and practice fields, Russell convinced his players that its stagnant water was actually "Beautiful Eagle Creek," a source of "magical" waters.

Freedom's Flight

• In what has become one of the most popular traditions at GS, "Freedom," a male American Bald Eagle, takes flight before each home football game. Freedom is a Southern Bald Eagle that was found knocked out of the nest in Maitland, Florida. Only weeks old and appearing like a "brown ball of fuzz", it was discovered that the young eagle had an injury to its beak and suffered from an infection. Rushed to the Florida Audubon Center for Birds of Prey, Freedom made a complete recovery from the infection but the injury to the beak was permanent, preventing his release into the wild.

• With the permission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, GS acquired Freedom in 2004. Through the Georgia

• Under the supervision of Steve Hein, Director of the Center for Wildlife Education, Freedom is on the sidelines of all GS home games, and select road games.

RETIRED NUMBERS

• GS has retired two numbers in its football history, No. 3 for Adrian Peterson and No. 8 for Tracy Ham. Both are College Football Hall of Famers and both went to the same high school: Santa Fe in Alachua, Florida.

• Peterson, a 2017 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee, is the NCAA Division I all-time leading rusher with 6,559 yards in regular-season contests and was a four-time All-American. He led GS to two national titles.

• Ham, a 2007 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee was also inducted into the CFL Hall of Fame in 2010. He led the Eagles to back-to-back I-AA National Championships (1985, 1986). He and Ham both work in the athletics department at Georgia Southern.

CONWAY, S.C. - A strong day running the ball with over 400 yards on the ground and a suffocating defensive effort led the Georgia Southern football squad to a convincing 41-17 victory over Coastal Carolina at Brooks Stadium in Sun Belt action as the Eagles broke a two-game skid to pick up their eighth win of the season. After Coastal racked up 132 yards and 10 points on its first two drives, the Eagle defense held the Chants to just 15 yards over the next seven drives, forcing six punts and a turnover, to take control of the game by scoring 38 straight points.

Key Scoring Plays:

- Shai Werts went airborne into the end zone with 6:35 left in the first half to tie the game up with a 12-yard run.
- Monteo Garrett's 54-yard run set up Wesley Fields' 6-yard scoring run on the first drive of the second half to give the Eagles a lead they would never relinquish.
- Logan Wright rumbled down the left sideline for a 59-yard scoring run to bust the game open.
- Garrett got in on the scoring with a 5-yard run early in the fourth quarter.
